

special projects

Project description

EMCOR UK delivered the complete refurbishment and upgrade of office space for a leading venture capital firm, including significant installation services.

Key benefits

- Performed a complete strip out of facility, creating a refreshed, modern office and workspace fitting our customer's innovative services
- Installation of partitions, glazing, and doors more effectively utilized space, adding new office and meeting rooms
- Network and data upgrade offered more dependable performance from customer's essential IT infrastructure
- Helped increase building efficiency by upgrading electrical, air conditioning and power systems
- Installed new fire and security system for added workplace safety
- Designed and built a new kitchen, helping boost employee satisfaction
- Future-proofing services to help extend building lifespan and minimize wear and tear

About the customer

This customer is a global venture investment firm created by a high-profile industrial manufacturing and engineering company. Established in the UK nearly 200 years ago, today the parent company employs nearly 14,000 people.

