

Terry Browne

Executive Director, Supply Chain

Terry joined EMCOR UK in 2003 having worked for EES, connected to group activity and collaboration with our parent company in the United States. Terry is part of our Executive Leadership Team and is passionate about providing safe, sustainable and innovative solutions from our Strategic Supply Chain partners.

Terry has worked in Supply Chain for over 40 years across the construction and TFM industries and is still adamant that the best results come from having open and transparent collaboration between companies and teams, and that trust is a great negotiating commodity.

A better world at work for Terry means, a safer, fairer and brighter place full of equal opportunities.

Terry enjoys playing golf, gardening and spending time with his three granddaughters in his spare time.
