

Jonathan Gawthrop

Executive Director, Wellbeing Sustainability & Assurance

Jonathan joined EMCOR UK in 2011 as an Operational Director at British Sugar, and has since progressed through various different roles and now forms part of the Executive Leadership Team. Starting his working life in Airline Quality Assurance, he moved into Facilities Management becoming Managing Director for the catering arm of a facilities provider in London and the South East. Jonathan is responsible for the development and application of our organisational strategy for wellbeing, safety, sustainability, quality, environment, social values and business continuity.

In addition to bringing these strategies to life, Jonathan believes in personally demonstrating the EMCOR UK values in support of our vision of a better world at work in all that he does. A better world at work for Jonathan means, creating the conditions which enable our teams to be the best they can be in a physically and psychologically safe workplace which supports them in creating a better world at work for our customers.

Jonathan is a Ph.D candidate and holds Masters degrees in Behaviour Change (MSc) and in Health Research (MRes), and is a Fellow of the International Institute of Risk and Safety Management (IIRSM) and the Royal Society of Fellows. He is a Director at the Society of Occupational medicine (SOM) and the British Safety Council (BSC) and sits on the Business in the Community Wellbeing Leadership Team (BITC). Outside of work Jonathan enjoys listening to music, cooking, exercising and gardening.
